

Overview of Role of NS Works for Post-Secondary students

Now that you've chosen your career path, you may be asking 'what happens next?'. Find your answers at Nova Scotia Works.

Whether you are looking for a job in your field, information about continuing your education, or would like to talk about career options, Nova Scotia Works is there for you. A certified Career Practitioner can help you navigate labour market information and access job opportunities in your community and across Nova Scotia. Do you need a targeted resume or want to practice your interview techniques? Maybe you want to talk to someone about your long-term career goals and how to get there? Contact Nova Scotia Works today. Both in-person and virtual appointments are available. For more information on their role and to get connected visit www.novascotiaworks.ca. Nova Scotia Works – Your job is our job!

Many students are faced with tough questions as they make important decisions about what to do next. Nova Scotia Works can help! If you find yourself asking any of the following questions, find a centre near you!

- I'm taking a Bachelor of _____but I don't know what that will get me.
- I'm interested in _____ but I don't know what I need to do to get there.
- What jobs pay well?
- How can I get money for school?
- I don't know what I want to do.
- I am not sure how to find a job and where to look.
- There is so much information out there - I feel overwhelmed.
- I am not sure how to do a resume and cover letter.
- Feeling discouraged about not finding work.

Some services that students can take advantage of (and more):

creating your resume and cover letter

preparing for an interview

participating in a workshop

applying for funding programs