

Former CKBC Executive Director, MJ Abbott win BC Sports Hall of Fame Award

As announced in our October AGM, a Special Congratulations is in order for Canoe Kayak BC's past Executive Director, Mary-Jane Abbott who was recently recognized for her dedication and service to the sport of Canoe/Kayak in BC. MJ was 1 of 6 recipients of the Eric Whitehead Inspired Service Award which is given out by the BC Sports Hall of Fame each year, to honor those who have dedicated their inspired services to Sport in the province.

MJ has been a driving force in the sport of Canoe/Kayak in BC for decades and CKBC continues to reap the rewards and benefits from her time with our organization. From grassroots, recreational, and High Performance programs, athletes, coaches, volunteers and more, MJ helped build our sport into what it is today.

For a deeper look at the impact of her contributions and her accomplishments, please visit the previous article announcing her retirement.

Congratulations MJ and CKBC thanks you for your ever-giving inspired service!
