PART I –

Force Majeure in Canada

Fernandes Hearn LLP
BARRISTERS & SOLICITORS

- "An act of God clause or force majeure clause, and it is within such a clause that the words "non-availability of markets" are found, generally operates to discharge a contracting party when a supervening, sometimes supernatural, event, beyond control of either party, makes performance impossible."

Force Majeure in Canada

- "The common thread is that of the unexpected, something beyond reasonable human foresight and skill."

(paragraph 4)

James Manson (416) 203-9820 james@fhllp.ca

PART I –

Force Majeure in Canada

Fernandes Hearn LLP
BARRISTERS & SOLICITORS

- "If markets were unavailable to St. Anne, did they become so because of something unexpected happening? Was the change so radical as to strike at the root of the contract? Could the company, through the exercise of reasonable skill, have found markets in which to trade?"

(paragraph 4)

James Manson (416) 203-9820 james@fhllp.ca

PART I –

Force Majeure in Canada

Fernandes Hearn LLP
BARRISTERS & SOLICITORS

- "Clause 2(a) contemplates the following frustrating events: an act of God, the Queen's or public enemies, war, the authority of the law, labour unrest or strikes, the destruction or damage to production facilities."

(paragraph 4)

James Manson (416) 203-9820 james@fhllp.ca

PART I –

Force Majeure in Canada

Fernandes Hearn LLP
BARRISTERS & SOLICITORS

- "Reading the clause ejusdem generis, it seems to me that "non-availability of markets" as a discharging condition must be limited to an event over which the respondent exercises no control."

(paragraph 4)

James Manson (416) 203-9820 james@fhllp.ca

PART I –

Force Majeure in Canada

Fernandes Hearn LLP
BARRISTERS & SOLICITORS

- "The primary cause of failure of the facility was lack of an effective marketing plan."
- Dickson J. proceeds to trash St. Anne's business plans

(paragraph 5)

James Manson (416) 203-9820 james@fhllp.ca

PART I –

Force Majeure in Canada

Fernandes Hearn LLP
BARRISTERS & SOLICITORS

- "The different between the trial judge and the Appeal Division turned essentially on whether "non-availability of markets" meant non-availability of economic markets for St. Anne"
- trial judge – objective test
- Appeal Court – subjective test

(paragraph 6)

James Manson (416) 203-9820 james@fhllp.ca

PART I –

Force Majeure in Canada

Fernandes Hearn LLP
BARRISTERS & SOLICITORS

- "The effect of the Appeal Division opinion would be to relieve St. Anne of contractual obligation if St. Anne could not operate at a profit. I doubt that reasonable [people] would have made such a bargain."

(paragraph 6)

James Manson (416) 203-9820 james@fhllp.ca

PART I –

Force Majeure in Canada

Fernandes Hearn LLP
BARRISTERS & SOLICITORS

- "It would in my opinion be doing violence to the plain words "non-availability of markets for pulp or corrugating medium" in the context of the entire clause within which the words were found, to permit St. Anne to rely upon its soaring production costs to absolve it of contractual liability."

(paragraph 6)

James Manson (416) 203-9820 james@fhllp.ca

Fernandes Hearn LLP
BARRISTERS & SOLICITORS

PART I –

Force Majeure in Canada

- "I do not think St. Anne can rely on a condition which it brought upon itself. A fair reading of the evidence leads one to conclude the whole St. Anne project was misconceived."

(paragraph 9)

James Manson (416) 203-9820 james@fhllp.ca

Fernandes Hearn LLP
BARRISTERS & SOLICITORS

PART I –

Force Majeure in Canada

- "The project, conceived in ephemeral hopes and not the harsh realities of the marketplace, resulted in a failure for which St. Anne… must be held accountable."

- what if St. Anne had a brilliant marketing plan but the markets were still just as difficult?
- what would St. Anne need to have done to benefit from the clause?

James Manson (416) 203-9820 james@fhllp.ca

PART I –

Force Majeure in Canada

Fernandes Hearn LLP
BARRISTERS & SOLICITORS

- didn't the parties agree to the clause?
- was it reasonable to make it so onerous on St. Anne to avail itself of the clause (which both parties agreed to)?

PART I –

Force Majeure in Canada

Fernandes Hearn LLP
BARRISTERS & SOLICITORS

- Court: "Here, the state of the market and conduct of the plaintiff put the defendant in an economically critical condition. This is not sufficient, however, to bring the doctrine of frustration into play. Even if Sysko were broke and simply unable to pay Hanna for pellets, this would not provide an excuse for non-performance."
