What We Love For Home

“I fell in love with Eero Saarinen’s womb chair in design school and now it is the favourite seat in our house! ”

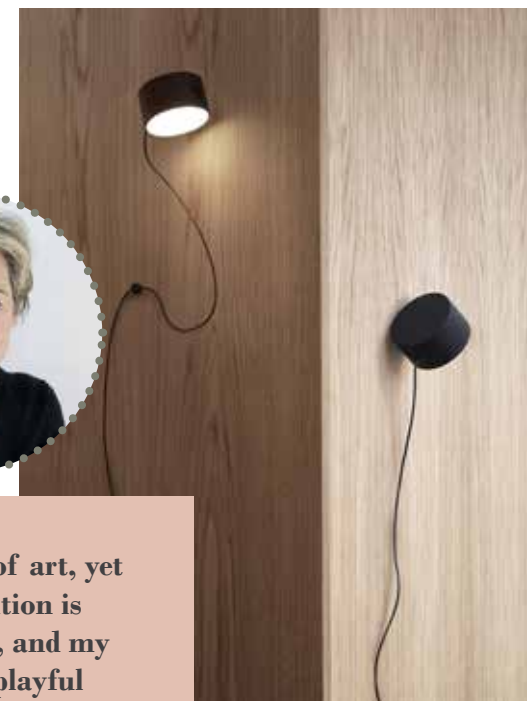

“One of my favourite Mid-Century Classics is our Saarinen Executive Chair. On Casters and with a swivel this is my perfect WFH chair ”

“I love my Risom for its understated and modern aesthetic. As someone who compulsively craves change in my space, I never feel the need to swap it for another. It’s easy to practice sustainability when you invest in pieces that are informed by good design and withstand the test of time. ”

“For me, this Muuto lamp is an ingenious work of art, yet incredibly functional. The clever lamp composition is mounted on the wall with the help of a magnet, and my favourite feature, is having the ability to add a playful formation with the drop cord which allows you to position and turn it whichever way you desire. ”

“My ideal home office is an organized workspace with a well-designed chair ”
