

Scroll to bottom for Image Description

Audio Described Performances

We are pleased to welcome you to our Audio Described Performance of Disney's Frozen here at Neptune Theatre! A big thank you to the Craig Foundation for their continued support in making our space more inclusive. We look forward to continuing to make this a regular part of our programming, and invite all patrons to come, be themselves and experience live theatre!

Schedule

Show: Disney's Frozen

Date: Thursday, December 12th 2024

Devices: Please indicate if you will be requiring a listening device when you arrive.

Timing breakdown:

6:00PM: The Fountain Hall lobby is open to audience members. A Neptune Theatre staff member will greet you at the door and hand you an audio listening device. Please arrive between 6:00PM and 6:10PM.

6:15PM: Neptune Theatre staff will escort audience members using listening devices into the theatre for the audio introduction.

6:20PM: Touch Tour and Pre-Show Audio Description. Our Audio Describer, Laura Caswell, will give a pre-show audio description of the set, costumes, and other elements of the production. The touch tour is a chance to get familiar with some of the props and materials used in the show.

6:30PM: The house opens to all audience members. You can use this time before the show to use the washrooms or get a drink at the bar. Washrooms are located in both the main entrance lobby and the lower lobby. Drinks are allowed in the theatre.

7:00PM -9:30PM: Showtime! The show is approximately 2 and a half hours, with a 15 minute intermission in the middle.

Resources

To listen to the cast of Disney's Frozen give their character descriptions, CLICK HERE.

For more information about Neptune Theatre's Audio Described performances and other accessible performances, visit neptunetheatre.com/accessibility, or CLICK HERE.

Image Description:

Rectangular banner with a blue and white background. On the left side, a silhouette of the character Elsa stands with one arm extended. Icy, sparkly fractals expel from her body. The right side of the banner reads "Neptune Theatre's production of Disney's Frozen the Broadway Musical" The word, "Frozen" stands out in a large, icy, white font.