

Dr Sanea Abboud MD, CCFP(PC)

Dr. Abboud completed her medical education and Family Medicine training through Sherbrooke University in Quebec in 2013. She further advanced her training by completing a Palliative Medicine fellowship at Queen's University in 2015. Upon graduating she relocated to her home province of Nova Scotia and began practicing as a palliative care physician in beautiful Cape Breton. She worked for 8 years as a very valuable member of the Cape Breton County Palliative Care team. Most recently she embarked on a journey to further advance her knowledge and training and is currently working to complete a Master of Science in Global Health through McMaster University. She has a passion for palliative care, human rights and the arts. Her connection and delivery of comprehensive holistic care to patients with a life limiting illness is exceptional and special in every essence of the word. Her professional aspirations include advancing her leadership skills, pursuing a PhD as well as travelling and working abroad. In her spare time you can find Dr Abboud enjoying yoga, hiking, writing, playing music, singing or dancing. She performed in Hospice Cape Breton's Dancing With The Stars fundraising event last year, raising $17000 towards Hospice care in Cape Breton and winning the award for the top performance. Dr. Abboud also enjoys spending quality time with her family and friends, travelling and being by the water.
