

Janet MacMullin

Janet graduated from Dalhousie University with her pharmacy degree in 2005. Janet started her career within the public system, eventually ending up at the Department of National Defence in Halifax as the Primary Care Pharmacist. Along with hormone replacement therapy, Janet has expertise and passion for diabetes, obesity and chronic pain management; obtaining her certification in Diabetes Education (DEC).

Christopher McCarthy

Christopher graduated from Cape Breton University with his Bachelor of Science in Nursing in 2004. Worked in a variety of acute care settings until 2009 when he started Graduate studies. Completed his MN from UNB-Fredericton, 2011, and has been working for the Department of National Defence since. Christopher is WPATH informed completing the foundations and advanced medication and mental health training and has been providing trans-affirming care since 2014.

Both Janet and Christopher were recipients of the 2022 Queen Elizabeth II Platinum Jubilee Medal