

Dr Lianne Yoshida CCFP, FCFP

Dr Lianne Yoshida has been an abortion provider since 2000. She is the medical co-director of the Reproductive Options and Services Clinic at the VG Hospital in Halifax. She provides procedural and medical abortion. She also started a contraception clinic this year after leaving primary care after working as a family doctor for 24 years. She is an associate clinical professor in the Department of Family Medicine at Dal focusing on abortion education.