NSTU Halifax City Local

Issue 10/November 10, 2025

Message From the President

Thank-you to all the new members who attended our New Member Trivia Night on Wednesday. Stay tuned for future events! Great work by MAL Kelly O'Brien.

A reminder to members that during this busy report card season, make sure to take care of yourselves and reach out if you need support.

Nancie de la Chevotière

President Halifax City Local NSTU 902-497-9254

City Shout-Out: Steven Fullerton

Steven Fullerton, an early-career teacher at St. Agnes School, balances a demanding assignment while still leading lunch-hour Dungeons & Dragons. He models positive masculinity, builds strong connections with staff and students, and makes a daily difference. Nominated by colleagues, Steven is this week's City Shout-Out—thank you, Steven!

The Sheonorail Foundation, established by the Nova Scotia Teachers Union in 1999, is a registered charity dedicated to reducing violence in public schools through research, reflection, writing, and peaceful schools initiatives. It provides funding to active or retired NSTU members, their groups, or student projects working with a teacher or faculty advisor. Grants support anti-violence programs that create immediate, positive impact in classrooms, schools, and communities.
