

Explore the NSTU's

Early Intervention Program for Teachers

Do you:

- Struggle with injury, sudden/ongoing pain, time/stress management or illness?
- Need support and guidance at work or with getting back to work?
- Worry that your sick leave bank is running low?
- Have questions about applying for disability benefits?

If you've answered "yes" to any of these questions, contact the Early Intervention Program at:

EIP Secretary or one of our
EIP Occupational Therapists

Telephone: (902) 477-5621

Toll Free: 1-800-565-6788

Fax: (902) 477-3517

Website: www.nstu.ca

Email: eip@nstu.ca

c/o Nova Scotia Teachers Union
3106 Joseph Howe Drive
Halifax, NS B3L 4L7

The Early Intervention Program is a voluntary program providing support and assistance to NSTU members who are experiencing illness or injury which is affecting their ability to remain at work or return to work. Services may include phone contact, ergonomic assessment, access to medical and rehabilitation services, assistance with return-to-work planning, and guidance in applying for disability benefits, if appropriate. For more information, please contact the Early Intervention Program.

Nova Scotia Teachers Union