The Lieutenant Governor's Teaching Award deadline is February 26

His Honour Brigadier-General the Honourable J.J. Grant, CMM, ONS, CD (Ret'd) Lieutenant Governor of Nova Scotia in partnership with the Nova Scotia Teachers Union is seeking nominations for The Lieutenant Governor's Teaching Award.

"Every day, teachers across the province go above and beyond the call of duty to support their students, their communities and their profession," says Lt.-Gov. J.J. Grant. "Through this award we recognize the important role of our educators and their extraordinary service to the people of Nova Scotia."

Each year a teacher is selected to represent the teaching profession in Nova Scotia. Potential recipients are nominated by colleagues, active teachers, administrators or Community College members of the NSTU. The recipient will exemplify outstanding leadership, dedication, commitment, and achievement of teachers to the youth of our province within our public schools and Community College campuses to foster the growth of their students, their communities and their profession.

"This award highlights and celebrates the positive influence teachers and Community College members have on the students and communities they serve," says NSTU president, Shelley Morse. "We are honoured to continue to participate in this initiative."

To be eligible, the successful candidate must be an active teacher or administrator working in a Nova Scotia public school or Community College campus, and a member of the NSTU.

The Lieutenant Governor will host an Award Recognition Ceremony for the recipient of the award at a date yet to be determined. The Lieutenant Governor's Teaching Award is generously supported by Johnson Inc.

Members of the Retired Teachers Organization (RTO) executive and a representative from the Office of the Lieutenant Governor comprise the award selection committee. The deadline for the nomination forms is Friday, February 26, 2016 by 4:30 p.m. Nomination forms are found on the NSTU website at this link bit.ly/24mmLiE.

The Lieutenant Governor's Teaching Award, instituted by the Honourable Myra A. Freeman, CM, ONS, MSM in 2005 was re-established in 2013 by His Honour Brigadier-General the Honourable J.J. Grant to celebrate the positive influence teachers have on the students and communities they serve.

The Nova Scotia Teachers Union represents 10,000 public school teachers, Community College faculty and professional support staff and teachers who work for the Atlantic Provinces Special Education Authority. Since 1895, it has worked to improve the quality of public education in Nova Scotia.
