Future cuts will affect kids

Nova Scotia's education partners to discuss impacts of funding cuts on public education system

Halifax, N.S. – Nova Scotia's Education Partners, school boards, teachers, administrators and parents will be holding a press conference to discuss the impacts of funding cuts on the public education system on Tuesday, December 13, 2011.

In 2011, the provincial government reduced funding to public education by $36 million dollars as part of its Back to Balance strategy and plans to continue these reductions for the next two years.

Join us to learn how these funding reductions have impacted our system and what future cuts will mean to students in Nova Scotia.

WHERE: Nova Scotia School Boards Association, Unit 395, 3 Spectacle Lake Drive, Dartmouth, NS
WHEN: Tuesday, December 13, 2011, 11:30 a.m.
WHO: Vic Fleury, Nova Scotia School Boards Association (NSSBA)
Alexis Allen, Nova Scotia Teachers Union (NSTU)
Vanda Dow, Nova Scotia Federation of Home and School Associations (NSFHSA)
Gary Clarke, Association of Nova Scotia Educational Administrators (ANSEA)
