CRAFT TIME

Father's Day Award Ribbon

Materials:

- 2 sheets of red paper (or any other color)
- yellow paper
- black marker
- scissors
- glue

www.easypeasyandfun.com

Instructions:

1. Start by folding a sheet of paper in half (along the longer side). This way the center will be marked. Now cut along the middle to get two long strips of paper.
2. Start folding the sheet of paper (the strip) making accordion folds all the way till the end.
3. Do the same with the other strip of paper.
4. Push the "accordion" together (close it). Fold it in half.
5. Glue together on one side. This will make the paper look like a fan.
6. At the bottom of the fan, the last two or three accordion folds will still be able to be stretched out. We don't want that, so apply a small amount of glue at the centre to glue them together.
7. Repeat these steps with the other strip of paper. Now you have two fans and you need to glue them together.
8. Hold them together for a while for the glue to set.
9. Cut a circle out of yellow paper. It needs to be smaller than the award ribbon rosette. Write what the award is for. "Best Dad Award" or whatever message you would like.
10. Add glue at the back of the yellow circle and press it on to the rosette. Allow the glue to set.
11. Cut two ribbons out of red paper. Glue them on the back of the award ribbon rosette.
12. All done and ready to be given to the best dad in the world!

To My Dad

By Kelly Roper

To my Dad who:

Chases monsters from my closet,
Reaches stuff that's way up high,
Carries me on his shoulders and
Lets me try to reach the sky,
Keeps me safe no matter what,
And watches over me when I sleep,
Puts bandages on my cuts,
And lets me make the car horn beep.

I love you, Dad, in every possible way.
Have a Happy Father's Day!
