

Submission Guidelines for Women Playwrights International Montreal 2021 Conference

- Submission Deadline: Dec. 15 2019
- Notification Date: April 15 2020

Eligibility:

- Submission is open to professional, semi-professional or emerging female, gender-fluid, non-binary and gender non-conforming playwrights from any part of the world.
- The script can be unproduced or previously produced.

Please send the entire text of your script to the regional jury that corresponds to either your place of birth or residence:

- Africa: WPI2021Africa@gmail.com
- Asia: wpi2021asia@gmail.com
- Europe: wpi2021europe@gmail.com
- North America Region: wpi2021noamerica@gmail.com
- South America: WPI2021Sudamerica@gmail.com
- Oceania Region: wpi2021oceania@gmail.com

Plays must be submitted to the appropriate email with the following information:

- Name & Address:
- Country of residence:
- Phone:
- Email:
- Website (if applicable):
- Title of Play:
- Total number of pages/running time:
- Number of characters:
- Gender/Age breakdown of characters:
- Language of original script:
- A 100-word biography of the playwright:
- 100-word synopsis in English or French:
- 200-word statement in English or French about the style of your play and how your play is related to one of the themes of WPI Montreal 2021.
- A brief production/development history of the submitted play (if applicable).
- Do you want your play to be considered for a full production? If so, please know that WPIM will provide only the theatrical venue and technical support. All other production elements and expenses are the playwright's responsibility. Please note running time must not exceed 75 minutes.
- All playwrights selected for WPIM 2021 will be sent official letters of invitation to help solicit funding.
- If selected, the playwright is responsible for having their work translated into English or French.

For inquiries or further info, please contact us at wpimontreal2021@gmail.com