

Outstanding Emerging Artist Nomination Form

The Outstanding Emerging Artist award is presented to an early-career artist who demonstrates distinction and passion in their field, and is already making contributions to affect our theatre community.

This award has had many iterations throughout the years, once presented by the Mayor’s office, then through Neptune Theatre as part of their Chrysalis program, and it is now administered by Theatre Nova Scotia directly.

This peer-nominated award is intended for artists who have been present in theatre in Nova Scotia between two (2) to ten (10) years, and have demonstrated a strong interest in pursuing/advancing their career in theatre.

Eligibility:

- The nominee must be an emerging artist in a theatrical discipline, including but not limited to directing, designing, acting, writing, producing who has spent no fewer than two (2) years and no more than ten (10) years in their chosen field, after training
- The nominee must be a candidate who has demonstrated a strong interest in and potential for pursuing or advancing their career in theatre
- Nominees must have created, or participated in, at least one (1) one artistic work that has been presented or produced in Nova Scotia. The adjudicating committee will be interested in the specific contribution of the candidate
- The nominee is a permanent resident of Nova Scotia

Notices:

- The nominations will be administered by Theatre Nova Scotia
- The nominations will be reviewed by a TNS Selection Committee panel
- The award will be given annually, except when the Selection Committee deems that there is no suitable recipient

Submissions:

- Nominations must include a current CV of the candidate.
  - Support material may also be optionally submitted (letters of support, news clippings, portfolio images, etc.)
- By email: submissions@theatrens.ca
- By mail/drop-off: Theatre Nova Scotia
